City Council Strikes Back At Charges By "Better DC Government" Leaders

The City Council cleared a battleground today for a bitter political war.

Counterattacking its critics in the organization known as "Better Government for Daly City" it charged: That Arthur J. Bodien lacks knowledge of municipal government and, as former head of the street department, allowed an expenditure of $100,000 to extend Brunswick one block, doubling the estimated cost.

That City Treasurer Paul Selmi intimidated certain city expenditures were illegal, but he signs the warrants. The city council said he asked a salary raise from $75 to $250 monthly which was denied and requested that business licenses be issued out of his office, also refused.

That Herman Kalinan, vice chairman of the opposition group, failed to receive a commission appointment and has an axe to grind. That Nate Pearlman, the new organization's treasurer, was criticized by councilmen for submitting an exorbitant bill for painting.

That Allen Pettigrew and Mrs. Mary Phelan, who supported David Johnstone, are his relatives. Defending itself against charges of mismanagement made by its accusers last Wednesday, the council declared:

Anent curbing the powers of City Manager Howard I. Stites that they are based on a model ordinance. That department heads cannot be forced to retire or resign. That the council supports civil service.

That commission government would be a step backward. That the engineering department saves the city money.

That voter approval of all construction would not be in the taxpayers' interest. That the Johnstone case is closed.

That use of vacant space in the War Memorial Building saves city funds. That the tax rate has been reduced and new services provided.

Lack of Discipline That there has been a complete lack of discipline throughout most city departments and this has been abated.

The city council's statement said in full: "Recently, a newspaper article appeared concerning an organization in the City of Daly City, the members of which, without any discussion concerning their thoughts at one of the regular

Perkins To Request New Hearing On Westmoor Commute Line

Burt Perkins, whose application for a state public utilities commission certificate to operate the Westmoor commute bus line between Broadmoor and West Portal was rejected August 23, said this week that he would probably ask for a re-hearing.

Perkins can either request another hearing or appeal the August 23 decision by the 20-day deadline, September 12.

The public utilities commission denied Perkins' application on the grounds that the No. 76 Municipal bus was already servicing the area and that Perkins' financial ability to sustain a line was not convincing.

Fahey Says He'll Appeal Cop Firing By Next Week

Attorney John J. Fahey, Jr., said today that he will file action in Superior court by the end of next week appealing the recent decision of the city council to uphold their firing of David H. Johnstone, Jr., former police inspector.

Johnstone was fired on May 23 on charges of "association with known gamblers" and "failure to inform Police Chief Roland Petrocelli of all investigations."

The firing was appealed to the civil service board of review which, after lengthy hearings, gave a unanimous opinion for Johnstone's reinstatement. On August 1, the council ignored the board of review's findings and voted three to one to reaffirm the firing.

STATE BOARD DENIES APPEAL FOR HILLTOP BAR LIQUOR LICENSE

Revocation of Hilltop Lodge's liquor license by the Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control on April 7 has been upheld by the appeals board, according to word received Wednesday by Russell Mather, assistant to the board.

The appeal opinion reversed two of the charges in the April 7 decision but upheld the charge that Hilltop Lodge owners permitted illegal sale of narcotics on their licensed premises.

OK Study On B'moor Annexation

William Baughman, retired state government operations analyst, was retained by the city of Daly City and Broadmoor Property Owners association yesterday to conduct a survey to arrive at an "equitable basis of annexation" of the unincorporated Colma area by Daly City.

Baughman's report, which will outline the facilities which would be offered the Broadmoor area by annexing to Daly City, as well as the advantages to be gained by the city, will be reviewed by the California Taxpayers association to insure its impartiality, according to the committee.

The retired government official, who has conducted more than 46 studies of incorporation and eight annexation surveys, will begin his project immediately and is expected to finish it in from three to six weeks.

Baughman has promised the city that cost of the study will not exceed $500, excluding engineering work which might have to be done by the city. Broadmoor Property Owners association will help finance the survey, their share being computed on a comparative population basis with

Stites Quashes Rumor On "Free" Landscaping

City Manager Howard Stites today quashed a rumor circulating in Daly City about his landscaping.

The rumor had it that Nurseryman A. J. Conci placed the grass and shrubs on his lawn and received payment from city funds.

As evidence, a city warrant to Conci for $200 was cited. Stites said that he employed Conci to do the work at his premises for which the charge was $400, which he paid from his personal account and has the cancelled check to substantiate it.

The $200 warrant was for work performed for the city. "After 30 years in municipal government work, wouldn't I be foolish to commit a felony for such a trivial sum," he declared.

Held Saturday, the procession included over 500 participants and marched from the top of the hill, down Knowles avenue and Alemany boulevard to the Westlake shopping center.

David, now 14, son of Mrs. Genevieve Boydston of 81 Crestwood drive, became one of the city's best known citizens after he phoned this newspaper last year to insert an ad asking people to join his parade. The paper refused his ad but ran a front page story instead.

The response was terrific, and David, the boy who "likes parades," was rewarded with a full-scale production in Westlake.

This year, David's dream of a "bigger and better" parade came true again.

Rides Horseback Promptly at 1 p.m., David, dressed in his Boy Scout uniform, led off the procession on his frisky horse, "Dixie," lent by Mar Vista stables. Following David came his mother and John Stack, coordinating parade marshal of 161 Crestwood drive, both of whom also were on horseback.

Next came the Treasure Island Electronics school drill team and band, followed by the recreation department archers. Again this year, the band's first selection was "Anchors Aweigh."

"Miss Daly City," Janet Watson of 34 Westdale avenue, and "Little Miss Daly City," Denise Petty of 70 Oaklawn drive, came riding by on a quarter-ton jeep donated by the local company L. of the California National Guard.

Denise's "Little Miss Daly City" attendants followed in convertibles, lent for the occasion by Gateway Chevrolet and Mrs. Fred

HILLSIDE BLVD. RE-SURFACING IS ORDERED BY CITY

Re-surfacing of the washboard-like Hillside boulevard, long a pet peeve of citizens in the area, can be accomplished this fall, City Manager Howard Stites informed the council Monday night.

Stites said the city would have time to do the job before the rainy season set in. Work will include re-surfacing all of Hillside between Mission and Price streets.

The manager estimated cost of the project at between $30,000 and $35,000.

Stites said except for Hillside no further major street work would be done until next spring.

The Hillside project is expected to be completed before December 1, Stites said.

Funds for the job will come from the state gas fund disbursements.

North San Mateo County Sanitation District Chairman Thomas Callan Sr. turned a valve Monday that started the first flow of sewage into the district's $500,000 primary sewage treatment plant.

The mammoth operation, which takes care of the sewage in Daly City, Broadmoor, Colma, Sterling Park and Garden Village, will eventually process more than 2,000,000 gallons of effluent daily, with a capacity of 4,000,000 gallons.

After treatment in the plant, sewage is dumped 270 feet out into the ocean north of Daly City. Up to now, raw sewage has been discharged into the ocean, creating a dangerous health problem and ruining potential recreation areas. The district's new plant will process sewage so that it meets the most rigid of state laws recently enacted to curb pollution of coastal and inland waters.

Officials On Hand On hand Monday as Callan activated the plant which has been under construction since early this year, were district directors Edward J. Dennis, Sanford Vickers, and plant personnel M. H. Coblenz, superintendent, R. L. Reed, chief operator.

WILL COST CITIZENS 75c TO $2

City Assessor B. C. Ross revealed today that he has ordered a blanket 15 per cent increase in land assessments, effective on the tax roll for this year.

Based on the tentative tax rate of $1.43 per $100 assessed valuation, the land assessment hike would bring in an additional $14,866.28 in revenue to the city annually.

The increase, which applies only to land, not buildings, will cost homeowners from 75 cents to $2 per year in additional property taxes.

A lot, for instance, assessed last year at $400, would now be valued at $460, meaning the owner would pay $6.57 in taxes on the land, as compared with $5.72 a year ago, or an 85 cent increment.

A homeowner with a larger lot, assessed for example at $1000, will pay $2.14 more in land taxes this year.

Ross said he revised the assessments on land upwards to "keep us where we should be." He pointed out that it has been more than 10 years since he has raised land assessments throughout the city.

The city council, sitting as the board of equalization, still must approve the assessment hike, but are expected to do so, since they were contemplating an assessment increase to bring in additional revenue.

The assessment increase brought land values in Daly City for the 1955-56 fiscal year to $7,970,265, as compared with $6,930,665 a year ago.

The tax roll for this year showed $7,970,265 for land, $21,242.81 for improvements (buildings), and $1,366,625 for personal property.

The second annual "David's Parade," started by Daly City's David Steward a year ago, was named a "smashing success" by its originator.

Held Saturday, the procession included over 500 participants and marched from the top of the hill, down Knowles avenue and Alemany boulevard to the Westlake shopping center.

Sirens Blare

Troops of girl and boy scouts preceded Daly City fire engines which delighted the heart of every child as they approached with sirens blaring.

Next came the snappy Marine drill team from Treasure Island.

The recreation department float and the bicycle brigade demonstrated some of the hard work done by the recreation department on the parade.

A smaller float from the Village Play School preceded the drill team and marching unit of Daly City's company L of the California National Guard, 49th Infantry division.

Buck Hannah, Henry Doelger, corporation advertising man, drove a Westlake Shopping center pick up truck for the event.

A group of local children followed in a hay wagon, lent by Mar Vista riding academy.

Chinese Drum Corps

Despite a necessary five-minute traffic break on Junipero Serra boulevard, which delayed the Chinese Central High drum corps, the 30 colorfully-costumed girls proved one of the parade's main attractions.

The drum corps was followed by a bus belonging to the Peninsula Bus Lines and three gayly decorated jitneys belonging to the Northgate Transit company.

Joe Lewkowitz, proprietor of the Richfield gas station on San Jose avenue, followed in his sound truck which blared forth appropriate marching music.

An impressive guided missile from Fort Berry was the next unit and initiated proper exclamations from spectators, while following was an exhibit from the AAA National Guard unit.

Gay Garbage Trucks

Last to roll down the hill were two huge garbage trucks, both decorated with colorful crepe paper and miniature American flags.

The parade disbanded in the rear of the Westlake Shopping center where free ice cream and cookies were distributed.

Following the parade the city council announced the following awards:

Electronics school Navy band first prize in the band division; Marine corps drill team, first; Company L, National Guard drill team, second; and Navy Electronics school drill team, third in the drill team division.

Guided missile, most original float; recreation department, prettiest float; Mar Vista hay wagon, funniest float; Chinese Drum Corps, first prize in the marching units; girl scouts, second; and boy scouts, third.

Special Awards

Special awards went to the Village Play School and Daly City Scavenger company.

On Saturday morning, Denise Petty was chosen as "Little Miss Daly City" at a contest at the War Memorial building. Chosen as attendants were Patricia Gari-baldi, 3, 73 Bismark street, and Diane Flynn, 4, 285 Glenwood avenue.

Denise was presented with a trophy by the Chamber of Commerce and her name was engraved on a perpetual trophy, also donated by the Chamber. She was crowned with a crown of carnations and given a bouquet by the Tanforan flower shop, and awarded a huge panda bear by the Hilltop Market. The two little attendants were presented with stuffed toy rabbits. Denise also was given a free portrait by Ken Reichardt of the Westlake Camera shop.

It was an important meeting so he kept turning it over in his mind, making sure he wouldn't miss.

Seated at the Villa Chartier on Wednesday last week, Joe waited and waited—but no fellow nomi-nators showed up.

Resorting to his trusty date book he looked and there it was in black and white: The meeting was Tuesday, one day earlier.

So Joe resolved himself to the situation, stayed put and enjoyed a steak dinner.

He learned later, however, that his absence didn't hurt Daly City's chances of getting an officer on the important Peninsula division of the League of California Cities.

Another city's top candidate for one of the executive posts dropped out of the race because of busi-ness pressure.

So Joe practically got his nomi-nations in without even being there.

State Board Denies Appeal For Hilltop Bar Liquor License

erest drive are George and Ann Kirchhubel and Daniel Pallas, who are represented by John J. Fahey, Jr., local attorney.

Fahey said yesterday (Thurs-day), before seeing the appeal board decision, that he is "inclined to think" he will take the case to superior court.

"I feel that something has been accomplished, however, in that the appeals board dropped two of the three charges," the attor-ney declared.

Undercover Work

Charges against the Hilltop Lodge were filed on September 21, 1954, by the Board of Equal-ization after five months of un-dercover work in the bar and sev-eral arrests of Hilltop Lodge cus-tomers. Following lengthy hear-ings, the alcoholic beverage con-trol board upheld the three BOE charges and revoked the liquor license.

The owners appealed the first decision, and hearing was held before the appeals board on Aug-ust 18. The appeals board adopt-ed their decision Monday but did not release their opinion until Wednesday.

Revocation of the license will probably go into effect in about a week, according to Norbert Falvey, alcoholic beverage con-trol department supervising agent. Falvey explained that the Hilltop owners still have recourse to superior court, thence to dis-trict court of appeals, and finally to supreme court.

May Retain License

If the decision is appealed to civil court, the appellants can ap-ply for a stay of execution and thus retain their liquor license until court opinion is reached, Falvey said.

The present revocation of li-cense is based solely on the al-leged sale of narcotics in the Hill-top Lodge. According to the ap-peals board opinion, revocation is mandatory by the department where a license has knowingly per-mitted illegal sales of narcotics upon the licensed premises.

Appellants contended that there was insufficient evidence to sup-port the narcotics charge.

This was denied by the appeals board with the following state-ments:

"The evidence clearly estab-lishes successive sales of narcotics over a continuous period of time, and in addition shows that marijuana was openly used in and about the premises on various occasions. The sum total of the evidence amply establishes that appellants knew, or in the exercise of reasonable care should have known, that illegal trans-actions in narcotics occurred up-on the premises."

Under state law, successive sales over any continuous period of time shall be deemed evidence of licensee permission.

The appeals board upheld the narcotics decision after studying transcripts of the first hearing, in which two investigators claimed they purchased marijuana and observed persons smoking mari-juana on the tavern premises. Ac-cording to the written opinion, the appeals board also considered the fact that James Lorenzana and James Acevez, both frequen-ters of the bar, entered pleas of guilty to narcotic charges.

Inconsistencies

Appellants' statement that there were inconsistencies in the tes-timony of the two witnesses was ignored by the appeals board on the basis that "a portion of the individual's testimony may be ac-cepted as true and the remainder disbelieved."

In reversing the two "disorderly house" charges, the appeals board maintained the following:

"The evidence demonstrates that appellants, in the conduct of the premises, took reasonable pre-cautions by hiring a special offi-der during periods when the pre-mises were crowded and by in-structing the officer to maintain order."

Special officer hired by the bar owners was John Coleman, Daly City police officer. Coleman worked during off-duty police hours at the Hilltop Lodge.

During the first hearing, Cole-man testified that five arrests were made at the bar during his employment by Hilltop Lodge owners. The arrests occurred on July 10, July 18, August 1 and August 7.

File Writ To Force Knight's Action On Assembly Election

An action was filed in state supreme court Monday to force Governor Goodwin J. Knight to call a special election for the vac-ant assembly post in the 25th dis-trict, which includes northern San Mateo county.

Writ of mandamus alleging that it is the governor's constitutional duty to fill the vacancy created by resignation last spring of electee Daniel J. Creedon, was filed by co-plaintiffs Thomas Jenkins and Bob Buchanan, both of Broadmoor, and Edna Calhan of Sharp Park.

"Discriminatory"

The writ said if the governor failed to call the election it would be discriminatory to the people in the district in that they would be without representation in the state capitol.

Jenkins, who has been named by the Democrats as their candidate for the job if the election is or-dered, said today he couldn't un-derstand the governor's delay.

"The attorney general has already ready given an opinion that it's up to the governor, not the county boards of supervisors, to call the elections."

In other districts where county boards have asked that vacancies be filled, the governor has com-plied.

However, San Mateo county board refused to order the elec-tion, holding that it was the gov-ernor's duty.

Two other southern California districts where vacancies exist and no supervisory action was taken filed writs jointly with Jen-kins Monday.

5 Days To Answer

The governor has five days in which to answer the writs, after which the court will then set a hearing in approximately 15 days.

Following a hearing, the mat-ter will be taken under submission by the court.

Jenkins said if all goes well the election could be held by late Octo-ber, giving the winning candidate plenty of time to give representa-tion to the district by serving on special committees, the general and budget sessions.

Youth Found Guilty Of Car Boost Count

An 18-year-old Daly City youth was found guilty of car boosting, fined $50 and placed on a year's probation this week by Judge Thomas L. Bocci in municipal court.

Arrested Thursday with the evi-dence in his car was Gerald E. Gruenwald, 18, 133 Gambetta street. Officers picked up Gruen-wald for questioning about an hour after a car boost victim reported the description of Gruenwald's car to police.

Reporting the theft of three hub caps and a fender skirt to police was Christopher Frasnios, 155 East Vista avenue. Frasnios said that he heard someone tampering with his car as he dressed to go to work at 3:05 a.m.

He ran to check and saw the booster climb in his car and pull away. A chase failed to catch the car booster, but Frasnios was able to report a full description of the car to police.

WELCOME ADDITION TO THE STATUTES

Daily City's proposed animal leash ordinance as drawn up by the city attorney with the sanction of the city council stands as rational answer to a long annoying, sometimes dangerous, problem.

Almost everybody likes animals and probably two families in three own a dog or cat.

On the other side of the pendulum, almost nobody likes to spend hours cleaning up a once-neat yard or listening to a stray hound dog wailing in the early morn or hazard letting their children out when belligerent and potentially vicious animals are running the streets at random.

The proposed ordinance not only states that animals must be leashed or at "heel," when in a public place, but also gives the poundmaster and his deputies important police powers.

In any urbanized community this size, given enough leeway, stray dogs and other animals could overrun the community. Unofficial figures estimate that this city's animal population will reach 15,000 by 1956.

The leash ordinance attempts to sensibly control the animal problem in the city, without posing any undo hardship on sincere pet lovers.

In fact, the ordinance should come as a blessing to pedigree dog raisers in that it would give their animals some guarantee of protection.

As we understand it, it is not the amateur and professional dog trainers and breeders who oppose the ordinance, but others who would let their animals run amok at the expense of the public.

The proposed leash ordinance, from the viewpoint of both people and animals, will come as a welcome addition to the city's statutes.

Hillside Boulevard Held Chief Traffic Problem By Verducci

City officials of northern San Mateo county have been asked to report within 30 days on chief problems of east-west traffic flow in their communities.

Meeting Tuesday night with the north county lowlands fill committee, which takes up problems of area-wide nature, Mayor Joseph Verducci reported that Hillside boulevard in Daly City, although not an east-west route, is the number one problem as far as this city is concerned.

Each of the north county cities will meet with their engineers and report back on which traffic problems are of top priority.

From here, the cities will then inform supervisors from their districts of the projects, in order of priority, they would like to see accomplished by the county.

Verducci said Hillside boulevard posed a maintenance burden for this municipality since, although it runs through the city, majority of the traffic is from outlying communities.

The north county lowlands committee takes up such problems as

KOVR TO HAVE STUDIOS IN SAN FRANCISCO . . . With plans for live programs to originate regularly in San Francisco, KOVR, Channel 13, will open auxiliary studios in the Mark Hopkins Hotel next month. San Francisco offices of the station will be located there including the office of Gordon Grannis, a resident of Westlake, who was interviewed several months ago for this column. At that time Mr. Grannis was enthusiastic about possible San Francisco studios, which predicted move has now materialized. The station will continue to transmit its programs from its transmitter location atop 4,000 foot Mt. Diablo, and programs will be relayed to Mt. Diablo from San Francisco. Along that line Mr. Grannis said that it is possible to receive Channel 13 quite clearly in the Daly City area. (If you are having problems currently with Channel 13 reception, KOVR's field engineer, Mr. Hal Gray, will be glad to answer your questions. He may be reached at UN. 3-6727.)

Commenting on the move, General Manager Terry H. Lee stated, "With establishment of these facilities in the Mark Hopkins in September, KOVR will commence telecasting a portion of its programming from San Francisco. We believe the addition of these facilities to our main production center in Stockton will better enable us to serve both our viewers and advertisers. In our 'live' San Francisco telecasts we intend to capture some of the spirit of San Francisco and the Bay Area. We believe this will find wide appeal among viewers in the San Francisco-Oakland Bay Area as well as those throughout all of Northern California."

KIDDIES' CORNER . . . "The Life and Legend of Wyatt Earp," a new dramatic series of programs based on outstanding events in the life of the famous frontier marshal who brought justice to the scattered communities beyond the Mississippi, will premiere next Tuesday evening over KGO-TV at 8:30 p.m. Each episode complete in itself, will recreate the historical career of the courageous peace officer, and will include many characters, portrayed by top flight actors, based on authentic people who actually lived in that colorful era. In tribute to the great man, this week was proclaimed "Wyatt Earp Week" by the governors of Missouri and Kansas. We firmly believe that a television program based on historical incidents and people can be exciting as well as of educational value. What better way to make history live in the minds of children than to dramatize historical incidents. We are awaiting the series with interest and hope that it will prove to be suitable for older children. We will review the program in a later column.

Naturalist Janet Nickelsburg, who conducts the new children's series "Stop, Look and Listen," which premiered over KQED last Thursday, is well known in our area. She has lectured before parents of the Village Play school located in Colma and also the Lake Merced Nursery school on the subject of nature program for small children.

LOCAL KQED CHAIRMEN NAMED . . . Mrs. Robert Buchanan, District Chairman for Northern San Mateo county of the KQED Viewers Council, has appointed the following officers to assist her in the organization of KQED chapters for the purpose of gaining audience support for Channel 9: Mrs. Jos. Elliott, 923 Bradley Drive, District Vice-chairman; Mrs. Barnaby Mayville, 840 Beechwood Drive, Area Chairman of the Daly City area, and Mrs. William Hetzner, 100 Balboa Way, San Bruno, Area Chairman of the San Bruno area. The chairman for the San Mateo section has not yet been selected. Early in September a meeting will be held under the direction of Hal Light, General Chairman of the Council, to pass by-laws and coordinate the efforts of the various bay area chapters.

COMING PROGRAMS: "Juvenile Problems the World Over" will be discussed by a panel of teenage experts over KSNB-TV on Friday. The chairman is no stranger to you; she is last year's Publicity Chairman, Mrs. Thomas McNamara, to whom you extended so much courteous co-operation. We are confident that the same relations between our Unit and the Record will continue to the end of our term of office. Thank you. Sincerely Yours, Mrs. Marise Datzman, President, Bayshore and Midway PTA

YWCA Outlines Fall Program; Signup Plans

Registration is now open at the 620 Sutter street YWCA for fall classes and activities. "Looking for Something?" the new folder on recreational activities, is available by calling PROspect 5-6500.

There is something planned for every age group: 2 to 6 years, 6 to 12 years, teenagers, young adults, and even the 40 to 60 age group.

Charm, public speaking, social dance instruction, and bridge are some of the social arts offered this Fall in the first 8-week series of classes, starting September 19.

Classes in the home arts: cooking, party foods, dressmaking, and millinery, are limited in enrollment so that individual instruction can be given. The same is the case in the Craft Shop classes on watercolor, oil painting, ceramics, jewelry, and block printing.

Business girls and home women again have the opportunity to keep trim with exercises to music, posture clinic, and if they are really interested and adept, to join the YWCA Scandinavian gym team and work on rhythmic routines. Other sports classes offered this fall at the YWCA include golf, fencing, tennis, and swimming.

Young married women have three choices for a break in their week's routine. The YW-Wives club meets Tuesdays from 10 a.m. to 3:30 p.m. with a nursery to take care of pre-school children at the 620 Sutter street building.

Interesting classes and luncheon programs are planned. "Time Out For Mom" is a Monday night gathering for young wives in the Westlake area, with social activities and classes held in the Jefferson Elementary School from 7:30 to 9:30 p.m. At the YWCA Clay street center, Tuesday school meets each Tuesday from 1 to 3 p.m. and a supervised nursery is provided for pre-school children.

The "Tuesday Nighters" is a newly formed social group for men and women in the 40 to 60 age range. Films, outings, and discussions give an opportunity for meeting friendly, interesting people. For further information about the fall program at the YWCA, call PROspect 5-6500.

CITY EMPLOYEES TO DECIDE OUSTED COP ACTION AT MEETING

Directors of the City Employees association Monday night postponed decision on association action in the David Johnstone, Jr., ousted police inspector case until the general meeting Thursday, September 1.

At last month's meeting, it was tentatively decided to back Johnstone if such action is found to be legal and practical.

Also to be decided at Thursday's meeting is whether the press will be allowed to attend association meetings, according to President John Walsh.

Directors of the group are: Charles Munday, police; Ward Albe, fire; Tom Jones, water; Floyd Gonella, parks; Joe Intaschi, garage; Mrs. Evelyn Mosman, clerk; Cecil Saarinen, library; and Arnold Edinger, street.

California has four wilderness areas comprising 962,488 acres within its national forests.

LOCAL EXPLORER SCOUTS RECEIVE HIGHEST AWARD

Two Explorer Scouts from the Colma Crew 84, Bill Brown and Scott Parker, were among the nine of ten Explorer Scouts participating in the Father Hubbard Alaskan Expedition who recently received the highest award in the Explorer phase of the Scouting program.

Of the 10 Explorer Scouts making the expedition, nine completed technical requirements for the Explorer Silver Award, highest in the Explorer phase.

The two most frequently earned Explorer ratings were the outdoor and physical fitness rating skills, which were reported "natural" for the boys as a result of their program experiences.

One of the final events of the expedition took place during the last week of the group's stay in Alaska, when the Explorers made the formal presentation of the American flag to the Scouts of the southeastern Alaskan Scout Council in front of the governor's mansion.

The Explorers have already made two television appearances, and will be available for appearances before numerous groups. Anyone wishing to arrange for appearances of any of these young men at high school assemblies, service club meetings, or other large group meetings, is asked to contact Jack Flynn, assistant Scout executive, at the Council office, 205 Park road, Burlingame, Diamond 3-3666.

Hundred Cub Scouts, Families Hold Outing

Nearly 100 Cub Scouts and their families from Pack 243 enjoyed a day at Flood park on August 21. Various races were run and each Cub won one or more prizes. The parents played soft-ball, and lots of fun was had by all, the Pack reports.

During the summer months some of the dens have been visiting many interesting places such as the fire house, beach, museum, factories, and many others. Den mothers and all the others, "who have helped put Cub Scouting over in a big way these past months," were thanked by Cubmaster Stanley White.

"Now is the time for parents with boys eight years old to enroll them in the Cubs. Cubbing is something that both parents and boys will find interesting and worthwhile," White said. Anyone wishing more information about the Cub Scouts may call White, 289 Wyandotte avenue, Plaza 5-0216.

DC Garden Club Is In "High Gear" For September 11 Show

Members of the Daly City Garden Club were working at high gear this week to co-ordinate the efforts of the many Flower Show committees.

Theme of the September 11 Show is "Flowers in Your Garden," and considerable thought was given to arranging many of the classes to include varieties which do well and are at their best in this climate, according to Mrs. Elsie Garrison, publicity chairman. There are unusual Fuchsias, Pelargoniums, Roses, outdoor varieties, Tropical and sub-Tropical plants, and house plants which could easily take the Blue Ribbon awards. The show is amateur-competitive—meaning that anyone can enter in any of the specified classes and divisions. Interested persons may call Mrs. C. Yohn, 292 Hillside boulevard, PLaza 5-5580 by Thursday, September 1, for schedule and space allotment information.

The greater Daly City area can well be proud of its lovely homes and beautiful flowers, shrubs and trees which are in evidence the year round, reports Mrs. Garrison.

Northgate Election
Petition Is Filed

Petition for incorporation of a sixth class city of Northgate was filed with the county board of supervisors Monday.

The papers which would call an election to make Broadmoor, Garden Village, Unincorporated Colma and Sterling Park the county's 14th city received signatures of approximately 1700 registered voters.

Only 819 signatures were needed to force an election.

A committee headed by Thomas Noonan and Anthony Gaudio, attorney, filed the petition with the board of supervisors.

The board will meet again September 6 and call for the county clerk to verify the signatures and the assessor to verify that the petitioners are property owners and to determine the assessed valuation of the entire area.

Approximately 30 days from this time the supervisors will check the clerk's report, then hold a public hearing.

If the petition is deemed in order, the board then sets date for an election.

Noonan said if an election was held today, "We could win it."
He said he was optimistic because of his own experience and from talking to other petitioners.

meetings of the City Council, instead presented their views at a meeting held in Little Italy Hall. As a result, the members of the City Council requested and were invited to make use of the newspaper to discuss the points raised by the organization. The members of the City Council submit the following:

"1. The powers given the City Manager of Daly City were taken from a model city ordinance. They are no more or less than those given to any City Manager under any City Manager form of government. The City Manager ordinance was discussed by the council in open session on many occasions and the public was invited, some of whom did attend, and did discuss the proposed powers to be given the City Manager. In addition to those hearings, the ordinance was introduced at one meeting and read at another prior to its adoption and copies were available for anyone in the city who desired to discuss the ordinance. This new group and all of its officers had ample opportunity to question the City Manager ordinance; in fact, some of the members of the new organization were present during those discussions but no points were raised by them nor was any opposition voiced. In addition all important questions of policy are thoroughly discussed and agreed upon by the council and carried out by the City Manager. To support the efficiency of administration under the City Manager type of government, the tax rate in Daly City has dropped from $9.4 to approximately $8.0 this year.

Civil Service Protects

"2. City Department Heads are completely protected under civil service and legally so. There can be no forced retirement of said department heads nor dismissal without sufficient cause. There can be absolutely no argument on this point for the fact is that the Mayor of the city is a civil service employee and respects civil service. The entire council joins in that thought and no employee doing an acceptable job for the city need fear any disciplinary action. 51% of the total budget of Daly City is for salaries. Certainly the people want to receive good value for their tax dollar in this regard, and they are entitled to that. The Council some weeks ago requested the City Attorney to prepare and submit changes in the civil service ordinance which will in fact, strengthen ordinance 203. It should be more streamlined and clear in its definitions. The council must, as a matter of law, make the final decision. The council must make and has made decisions that it feels are correct, however the members are of the opinion that the ordinance, which has been in effect since 1936, is not efficient in this regard and should be changed. The changes which we have in mind will not in any way detract from the security of the employee.

"Step Backwards"

"3. Re-establishing a commission form of government is a step backwards. Actually Daly City did not have such a form of government. Any organization that meets for better government must realize that the commission type of government is practically extinct. The council ponders on the soundness of such advice which advocates a commission type of government, at the present time, exists only in one city in the State of California. Authorities in city administration agree that, under a City Manager type of government, only such commissions as provided for in state law should exist. The City of Daly City does have each of these commissions. Commissions, which are not authorized by state law, provide for red tape, duplication, multiplicity of effort and inefficiency. One of the arguments of the people has been that it is difficult to obtain information and immediate action. Our present type of government is streamlined and gives people as immediate action as is possible in government.

"4. Abolishing the city engineering department is another backward step. The engineering department was formed for many reasons including the following:

Varying Interests

"When city contracts for private engineering services as a substitute for a municipal engineering department, the city frequently finds itself in the position of having a city engineer who is also the engineer for private clients whose interest is at variance with that of the people. He frequently prepares a subdivision map for his clients and then approves the same map as city engineer for the city. These conflicts are embarrassing for the engineer and do not inspire public confidence in the engineering department. There are many services rendered by a city engineering department such as the regulation of street uses, maintenance of municipal engineering records for the public, proper mapping of the city and countless other services which the people do not have when engineering services are provided by contract. The consulting engineer does only such design work or mapping for which specific appropriations have been made. Practically every city with a population of 15,000 or more provides an engineering department for its people. Daly City passed this size years ago and as a result the proper maintenance of streets and inspection of public buildings has suffered. This engineering department has been considered by various councils for the past four years but we are proud to have carried this planning to reality. Hardly a city our size is without a city engineering department. The chairman of the proposed new group, Arthur Bodien, who claims to be the retired superintendent of public works did head the street department of the City of Daly City and did allow an expenditure of approximately $100,000 for an extension of Brunswick Street, which is only a block long. This street cost almost twice as much as was estimated. At the same time almost all street work had to be sent out to bid as there was no equipment to take care of the streets. This has been corrected; the equipment is being procured. The city, with an engineering department, has experts to save the people money.

Same Tax Rate

"8. The council is maintaining the same total tax rate as last year while providing the city with many more services. For example, we are procuring the equipment and enlarging the street department so that we may take care of the paving of streets which is definitely needed. This takes money. Tax rates of most cities surrounding us are being increased. The money for new services and equipment of old must be derived some place. Upon the completion of our budget, we find that a large amount of money must be raised for capital improvements, such as the completion of the War Memorial building and for the parks. One of the fair and equitable ways to raise money is to drop the discount for early payment of water bills.

"We must also comment on the leaders of this new group and their statements. "Mr. Bodien's lack of knowledge on municipal government is quite apparent when he suggests changing Daly City from sixth class to one of the third or fifth class. The state legislature has removed such classes of cities in California. Mr. Bodien was retired on pension as a civil service employee of Daly City and was perturbed because he was dismissed as an employee of the North San Mateo County Sanitation District. Mr. Bodien has a personal axe to grind. The North San Mateo Co. Sanitation District has two present city councilmen on the three man board.

Selmi Asked Raise

"Mr. Paul Selmi, our City Treasurer, is mentioned as a member of this organization. Mr. Selmi asked for a raise from $75 to $250 monthly. The law provides that elected officials should not be raised during their tenure in office and though an emergency statute passed during the war and not rescinded, allows an increase, we feel the emergency no longer exists and should not be used at this time, but any question of salary should be determined at the time of an election. Mr. Selmi's request for a raise was refused. He further requested that the business licenses formerly issued by the police department be issued from his business office. The council has denied Mr. Selmi's request, and of course, Mr. Selmi has a personal axe to grind. It is interesting to note that the article contained statements intimating certain expenditures of the city were illegal and unwarranted. Mr. Selmi, the City Treasurer, signs all warrants. It is his duty to report to the City Council any unauthorized expenditures of money and his duty as a public official to refuse to sign any warrant for illegal or unauthorized expenditures.

"Mr. Allen Pettigrew, who is not even a resident of the City of Daly City is actually disturbed because of the Johnstone decision. Why? Mr. Pettigrew is Mr. Johnstone's nephew. Of course, Mr. Pettigrew has a personal axe to grind.

"Mrs. Mary Phelan, Secretary of the new organization, is likewise related to Mr. Johnstone, the dismissed officer. Of course she, likewise, has an axe to grind.

"Mr. Herman Kalinan, the Vice President of the group, was told by one or more councilmen that, if possible, they would try to procure him a commission appointment. Such appointment never materialized. Mr. Kalinan has an axe to grind.

"Mr. Nate Pearlman, Treasurer of the organization, is a painter by trade. Mr. Pearlman recently painted one of our municipal buildings. The bill was criticized as being exorbitant by some of our councilmen. Mr. Pearlman was back frequently to the city council for re-consideration and the majority of the council has remained firm in its opinion. While the council respects the right of any person to disagree with the conclusions of the majority of the council, nevertheless, the council feels that it has acted for the benefit of all the people of Daly City in its decision. So long as the City Council represents the people, its members will vote as each feels proper. The majority of the members felt they should follow the recommendation of the District Attorney and nothing at the hearing changed their minds.

"7. This new group is obviously not thinking of the taxpayer's dollar when it wants 'to ha't the temporary use of unused space in the War Memorial Building.' The use of space in the War Memorial building at the present time, is of course, temporary. The War Memorial building cannot be completed this year simply because we don't have the money. We are attempting to finance the completion of the War Memorial building out of a performance budget—this will take time. We inherited the problem of completing the building when we became councilmen. The people, by election, have refused to pass bonds for its completion. Under the circumstances we must make the best of it. Since it cannot be completed for immediate use for recreation purposes, and the city needs space, it is only proper that the city use free space rather than rent space at a cost to the taxpayer. The cost of the few temporary partitions necessary to use this building is slight compared to the cost of renting space. We will attempt to complete this building at the earliest possible time so that all facilities in the building can be devoted to the use of the people. In the meantime, we will save the taxpayer money where ever we can.

"Mr. Allen Pettigrew, who is not even a resident of the City of Daly City is actually disturbed because of the Johnstone decision. Why? Mr. Pettigrew is Mr. Johnstone's nephew. Of course, Mr. Pettigrew has a personal axe to grind.

"Mrs. Mary Phelan, Secretary of the new organization, is likewise related to Mr. Johnstone, the dismissed officer. Of course she, likewise, has an axe to grind.

"Mr. Herman Kalinan, the Vice President of the group, was told by one or more councilmen that, if possible, they would try to procure him a commission appointment. Such appointment never materialized. Mr. Kalinan has an axe to grind.

"Mr. Nate Pearlman, Treasurer of the organization, is a painter by trade. Mr. Pearlman recently painted one of our municipal buildings. The bill was criticized as being exorbitant by some of our councilmen. Mr. Pearlman was angry by the publicity. Of course, he has an axe to grind.

No 9-Day Vacation
"Mrs. Viola De Bono slightly exaggerates her statements. The City Manager received permission to be absent for three days to attend his daughter's wedding in Pasadena. He was not authorized a nine day vacation as Mrs. De Bono claimed. We would reaffirm our decision at any time should the City Manager have another daughter's wedding to attend.

"Mr. Rene Brulez, who also resides outside the City of Daly City is an individual who wanted the War Memorial Bldg. to be operated solely by Veteran Groups. This building was passed by a general obligation bond issue as a recreation building and the law clearly stipulates it should be used equally by all groups of people and therefore cannot be used exclusively by any single group.

"Mr. Robert Cochran knows all public buildings would be available in the case of a disaster. In an emergency all public property will be used for the welfare of the public. It will be noted the discussion of the new group centers around the civil service and department heads. We recognize that some city employees are disgruntled. There has been a complete lack of discipline throughout most of our departments and this has been abated and no employee who does his work has any cause to fear. The city employees' representatives met with the City Council and were granted every demand except that for increased vacation. They wanted 16 days but the majority of the council felt that 14 days, as is given in most of cities, and industry was proper. This even affected the vacation period of the police and fire departments which is set at 15 days by state law. This council has never and will never tolerate the abolition of civil service or retirement. Such statements are merely propaganda circulated to mislead the public.

"Insofar as the warrants are concerned, these are legal expenditures and we have no doubt that these same people would run to the District Attorney or to the County Grand Jury if there were any question of illegality. As was previously stated, the City Treasurer did not question legality at the time that he signed the warrants.

"In conclusion, let us state that we are the duly elected representatives of all the people and intend to do our job for the benefit of all the people—not for any particular group. We want development and progress. We have continually asked all the people to attend our

Police Crack Down On Hill Hold Law; Wrong Side Parking

Daly City police are showing no mercy to persons who fail to properly park their cars on hills or who park on the wrong side of the street.

Because of increasing property damage and injuries resulting from these violations, the local department has undertaken a concerted drive to stop these infractions.

During the last two weeks 69 motorists have been cited for parking on the wrong side of the street, while 18 have been tagged for failing to use a proper side of the street.

City ordinance provides that all vehicles parked on a grade must have their brakes set and must have wheels blocked into the curb.

Lt. Roy Beecher said persons failing to observe this law are subject to fine of $10, while motorists parking on the wrong side of the street will be fined $250.

During the past several years one life has been lost and several thousands dollars in property damage sustained through accidents in which cars were not properly blocked on hills, Beecher said.

Parking on the wrong side of the street is the cause for many accidents, Beecher added, as cars are travelling in the wrong direction when they pull away from the curb.

Rockets Nicked By One Run As San Carlos Cops County Title

Once again by the margin of one run, the Westlake Rockets were vanquished Saturday, 4-3, by the San Carlos Lions, who are now the San Mateo Peninsula Junior league baseball champions.

The Lions bested the Rockets two straight games in the best two-out-of-three playoffs between the northern and southern division title winners.

Among the amazements of Saturday's contest was that not a single Lions run was earned and, even more unusual, the fact that Rocket pitcher Paul Tapia struck out four men in one inning and still two runs tallied.

Tapia allowed only two hits, neither of which contributed toward the runs. He officially struck out six batters.

The second inning was catastrophic for Westlake as the Lions punched across two unearned runs while Tapia was striking out four batters.

It happened like this: Catcher Sonny Martinez, usually reliable, allowed two called third strikes to get past him and both runners reached first base; the third man up in the inning also struck out, while both runners advanced. A ground out allowed one run to score and a juggled ball on the throw brought the second run in. Tapia then struck out the fourth batter for the "fifth" out of the inning.

The Lions grabbed off another pair of unearned runs in the fourth.

Ironically, none of the nine runs scored by the Lions in the two playoff games were earned, while the total Rocket runs, 7, were all earned.

The Rockets outthit the Lions Saturday, 9-3.

In the two contests, the Rockets had a total of 17 hits, against seven for the Lions.

The Rockets were undefeated in the northern division.

Coach John Belforte said a dinner would be held for the players at a later date.

Members of the Rockets team were: Ed Berg, Gordy Tydingco, Jim Wilson, Tapia, Martinez, Pete Garcia, Ross Holmgren, Gerry Kennedy and Jack Bautista.

Local Man Enters Fresno Boat Race

Frank Pennisi of Daly City, fresh from his third place effort in the 310-mile Redding Marathon outdoor race last month, will pilot his DU class runabout in the Second Annual Pacific Coast North and South championships to be held Saturday and Sunday at Millerton Lake outside of Fresno.

His craft, known only as 166-C, will be entered in the individual competition and will also be gunning for a spot in the north-south team competition to be held Sunday.

Saturday's races will consist of two heats consisting of five one-mile laps each over the Millerton course.

Trophies will go to first, second and third place winners in each of the racing classes. In addition, the first six place winners from the north and south will comprise teams to compete the following day.

Pennisi, a seafood cocktail packer, lives at 150 Valley street.

DC TEEN AGE CASABA CHAMPS BOW, 68-47, TO ALL STAR FIVE

Before a packed house Tuesday the Teen Age league champion Lincoln Lakers closed out the season, bowing to the talent laden All Stars, 68-47, in a contest played at the community center.

The exhibition contest got off to an amazingly fast start as both clubs banged away freely at the basket. By the close of the initial quarter the victors were on the long end of a 19-12 score as big Steve Shultz, 6' 4" All Star center gathered eight points with his fine hook shots. Shultz's outburst barely topped the seven point spurge by teammate Babe Anguillo in the period. Darryl Hutchinson and Stan Freeman, Lincoln mainstays, hit for six and eight points respectively to keep the champs within striking distance.

Both clubs battled to a stand still in the second quarter as defensive play stole the spotlight. The half time buzzer sounded with the All Stars out in front 31-24.

Figone Gets Range

After the intermission the All Stars Al Figone, who copped high point honors for the evening with 26, found the range from twenty feet out as he tanked three successive shots. Lincoln's Hutchinson retaliated immediately, however, on his favorite lay-ins. Freeman, Lincoln captain, closed the gap temporarily with a jump shot and a pair of charities but Anguillo's field goal, followed by another set by Figone, gave the All Stars a commanding 44-38 lead.

The All Stars really opened up in the final period as the tiring Lincoln club faltered. Don Wilson hit for two closely followed by Anguillo's jump shot. Figone kept the All Star onslaught going with a pair of push shots and Shultz added the coup de grace from under the bucket. Lincoln's John Finley hit four points during the quarter and Hutchinson added a field goal, but they were far

Peninsula Sportswriters Launch Second Season

The Peninsula Sportswriters association launched its second season Thursday, September 1, with a dinner meeting at Eugene's restaurant in Redwood City.

Chief items of concern at the inaugural session were: 1. Election of officers; 2. Outlining some sort of program for the 1955-56 year; 3. Selection of a regular meeting place.

Brisbane Proves Mettle

The well organized Brisbane B's proved their right to the League title with a 24-23 victory over a loaded All-Star outfit composed of the outstanding players from the rest of the league.

With the score tied and just one second remaining All Star guard Al Dye fouled Brisbane's Puzzy Firth. Firth, calm and collected, stepped to the free throw line and promptly dunked it for the victory.

Firth was high point man of the night with nine while Andy Ruelas of the losers and teammate Dick Fudge had eight apiece.

OLPH NIPS YANKS, 3-2; GAIN SPLIT IN LL PLAYOFFS

A double by Barry Krohn in the fifth inning sent two runs scampering home and gave OLPH a 3-2 victory and a split with Broadmoor Yanks in the playoff for the Daly City Little League championship.

The Yanks and OLPH will play the decider this Saturday at 12 Mile House, starting at 11 a.m.

OLPH was outthit Saturday at the 12 Mile House field, 7 to 4, but they managed to keep their runners moving around the bags, while Broadmoor twice faded out with the bases loaded.

Dick Reese was the winner, giving seven hits, striking out five and walking two. Christman allowed only four hits, struck out two and walked three batsmen.

Broadmoor had a chance to pull their chestnuts out in the final inning as, with Bruce Hix and Jim Heick on base, Tom McHugh smashed a triple into the hinterlands. Hix scored and Heick tried to stretch it home, but was thrown out, shutting off the Broadmoor attack one run short of victory.

Krohn's double in the fifth brought home two runs and broke a 1-1 tie.

McHugh's triple was the only extra-base hit for Broadmoor.

Gary Podesta's four-hit pitching was instrumental in giving Broadmoor their second win against as many losses.

Podesta struck out 15 of a possible 18 batters.

Leading hitters were Jerry Hyndman with three for three and Podesta, two for three. B. Hess and Mertola also hit safely.

Bill Landess sacrificed home two runs to give Broadmoor the advantage.

This Saturday the Giants meet Johnny's Shell Juniors at Balboa, starting at 11 a.m. Cornell Holmes will pitch for the locals.

Westlake Indians, co-winners of the Daly City recreation department's Junior league baseball race, will meet Brisbane Tigers Thursday, September 1, at 1:30 p.m. at Marchbanks park for a sudden-death playoff to determine the undisputed champion.

Brisbane and the Indians both finished the regular Daly City season with 7-1 records.

The Indians, playing under the name Rockets in the Peninsula league, were undisputed champs of the northern division but lost out in the playoffs with the south division title winners.

In the Daly City Intermediate league, OLPH won the championship, while Broadmoor and OLPH play off Saturday for the Little League diadem.

Double Parking At Top Of The Hill Area Studied By Council

Double parking on Mission street in the "top of the hill" area commanded the council's attention Monday night.

Councilmen were asked by City Manager Howard Stites to visit the congested area in person during the rush hours to observe the problem.

Most of the double parking is done by trucks stopping to make deliveries at business houses, the manager said.

Stites said the double parking not only was a traffic hazard for vehicles, but made it extremely hazardous for pedestrians crossing blind crosswalks blocked by trucks.

DC GIRL, 2 YOUTHS, FOUND WITH BEER

Two youths and a 15-year-old Daly City girl were picked up by police Friday night when they were discovered in a car at Gambetta and Hillside with an open quart of beer.

The oldest boy, 18, admitted to taking a "sip" of beer. The trio were taken to the police station, lectured, the girl released to the custody of her parents and the boys released on their own recognizance.

He suggested the scavengers purchase a site within Daly City, then turn it over to the city to be maintained. "We wouldn't be responsible for garbage pick-up but we'd have complete control of the dump to make sure it was sanitary and not unsightly," Stites continued.

Stites said the city might have to secure a site within the city limits by eminent domain, or condemnation.

The mayor directed Stites to contact McKeon and ask for the lease extension and also called on the manager to investigate possible dump sites within the city or adjacent contiguous areas.

Possible sites under consideration by the garbage firm include a canyon at the southern extreme of the newly-annexed 440 acres of Doelger property and a canyon owned by Mr. Jenue on the San Pedro road, west of Skyline, adjoining the Doelger 440 acres.

Verducci said he had come to two important conclusions on the garbage disposal problem: 1. That the garbage people of the county, in attempting to meet the requirements of the fill and cover law, have been unable to work among themselves to find a solution to the problem; 2. That if the local scavengers are eventually to secure a site, the city will have to
